Last Minute Meeting Canceled!!!

Everyone should have received a email from Bob and one from me letting you know that the monthly meeting had to be canceled because our meeting place had a large party for Thursday night football. I want to thank Sally at Michaelangelo's for contacting us about the conflict so we could inform everyone.

For those of you that are new to the association we do not meet in the month of December so that you can spend the holiday season with family and friends. Our next meeting will be on January 12, 2012.

We will have games to cover so make sure that you check your email and keep in touch with Bob, so that you can receive games. Please remember to send in your registration to Cal South before the end of the year. If you are not registered Bob cant assign you to games.

Have a great turkey day!!! Check your email for the December issue of the touchline.

See you in January.

End Of Year Wow!!

Wow, the year is almost over. By the time you read this, we are starting the First/Second round of College playoffs and High School season is about upon us. It is the time of the year that you need to get some rest and relaxation because the beginning of the year is the time for tournaments, State and National Cup. Since most of you should have taken your recert test last month, you do not have to worry about that. Make sure that you have sent in your form with the money if you did not pay online to Cal South so you are registered prior to January 1, 2012. If you are not registered, you are not able to do any games until your name shows up on the official list.

If you are short hours, try signing onto the referee instruction online website for their December presentation. Since some associations are not meeting in December, this is a good place to get credit. Additionally, look at the different association websites to see if they are meeting. If you are short on hours, please feel free to contact me to discuss your hours. Everyone have a safe Thanksgiving and see you out there on the field.

Fall Season coming to an End!

I can't believe that another fall season of soccer is coming to an end. Up until last weekend, it was uneventful for the most part. The rain made it very confusing as some fields were closed Friday night while others closed throughout the weekend. Both CSL and SCDSL will be making adjustments to the last few weeks of the season with those matches that were rained out. Some will be rescheduled, while others won't. It all depends on if the teams really need the games to be played. I know their will be adjustments to the schedule so check your e-mail and on-line assigning program with CSL everyday.

I would hope by now that everyone has attended a recert clinic/testing for 2012. If you haven't, check the Cal South referee clinic website for those few test dates left in the year. Please remember that if your name does not appear on the 2012 certified referee list come Jan. 1, 2012, I can't assign any youth matches to you. Those that are short meeting hours can also do the on-line training that San Diego has on the first Monday of the month.

As we close out yet another year, please keep yourself healthy for 2012. The month of January has tournaments every weekend, I believe, for all of us to get involved doing matches. Two of them are in our backyards, Legends & Man. United.

For those that change their phone numbers or e-mail addresses, please make sure I have any updated ones. I don't want any of our members missing out of any matches or information that your association sends out. You can reach me two ways: by phone (951.267.0544) or e-mail (assignor@tcsra.com).
