Many Things To Do!!!

We are buzzy with lots of games State Cup, Tournaments and Spring League. I hope you are ready for the older players to come back because they are finished with the high school season and will be hitting the fields. Be prepared!

Make sure that you keep your contact information current, by sending Bob, Lewis and I any changes to your email, home phone or cell phone information. We need this to be able to send you information about upcoming games, and to send you meeting information along with your Touchline link. We have quite a few invalid email addresses, some of you change them like you change socks, so please remember to get us the information as soon as you make any changes.

If you are not eating at home or want a snack please remember to support the host of our meetings by eating or buying something at Michaelangelo's even a drink will help show our appreciation.

Bring an extra dollar and get into the raffle Roy will be at he meeting tonight, he always has some good stuff to raffle. Welcome back Roy!!!

See You At The Meeting!!!

Training Time

By Jeremy Swan, TCSRA Training Officer

High School soccer season is over!!!

Is everyone glad High School soccer season is over? College Season, leading directly into High School season, leads to some long days and weekends if you go from one season to another.

We are already in the month of March. The younger's for State and National Cup are coming closer to the end, and the older are going to be kicking off again. With the older's just coming out of High School season, right now is a good time to focus on your game management skills and the necessary techniques of games management. Since the older's just finished High School, you are not sure what mental state they are coming back in. As many know, the high school season is mainly officiated with a 2 man system. With the 2 man system, there are chances to miss fouls or misconduct because they 2 officials cannot see everything on the field. These older players might try some of the same type of situations now back in club soccer. Be ready for this!

This month at our monthly meeting Rick Rehm will be presenting Law 21: Fouls and Misconduct. The presentation brings a different look at the law itself. It is a very interactive presentation, so make sure you are ready.

From The Assignor

State Cup, National Cup, Spring Soccer League and tournaments!

Yes, March is a busy month for us. So much soccer for our referees to fill your weekends. The State Cup younger divisions (U12 & below) are in their elimination rounds. The National Cup level of play is about to enter its second weekend. We also have a few Spring Soccer League matches mixed in on a few fields here and there. The Man. United tournament will be the weekend of March 19/20. It will include the older divisions so be ready to help out with it also.

For those wanting to do the Spring Soccer League, I need your help to be able to assign games to you. First, you must go to this site <http://www.scheduleetc.com/soccer/referee/default.aspx?id=ss11>. If you have a user name and password for the TCSRA Coast Soccer League, please go into the site. If you succeed, send me back a message telling me so. I will also need your home, work and cell number with that note. I have a lot of bad phone numbers from members who have changed theirs yet failed to notify me.

If you can't get into the system, send me your complete name (Capitalize first letter of first and last name) & an e-mail address. I will enter you into the system & send you back a note what to do next. I might use some of our members to fill games on SGVSRA's matches. Make sure that set of user name and password works for you also.
